Election/Restrictions

Claims 1-5 are subjected to species election.

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species:

I. Secondary treatment

- A. Bacteria (as in claim 5)
- B. Enzymes (as in claim 3)
- C. Fungi (as in claim 4)

II. Pre-selected Product produced

The species are independent or distinct because they are directed to distinct processes requiring a variety of distinct secondary treatment materials as well as the production of a variety of distinct pre-selected by-products, dependent on the secondary treatment materials selected.

Burden would ensue from the examination of distinct processes of making ethanol from sucrose or starch-containing feedstock of various types wherein secondary treatment agents such as different bacteria, different fungi and/or different enzymes which have distinct characteristics and effects are added for the production of undisclosed products.

Burden lies not only in the search of U.S. patents, but in the search for literature and foreign patents and examination of the claim language and specification for compliance with the statutes concerning new matter, distinctness and scope of enablement.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect ONE single disclosed species from A, B or C in Group I and ONE single corresponding species from within Group II for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable.

Currently, claims 1 and 2 are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Irene Marx whose telephone number is (571) 272-0919. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F (6:30-3:00).
